Problem Statement

- The dataset on students' performance is collected from a renowned school in India.

- It should be used to answer all the questions correctly.

- It contains their names, genders, levels of parental education, Maximum Scores, and Scores in - English, Maths, & Science.

- Clean / Arrange the raw data correctly to make it readable.

1. Calculate the total marks of each student using the appropriate formula.

2. Find out the total number of males and females in the class.

3. Highlight the cells with top 5 scores.

4. Count the number of non-empty cells in the dataset.

5. Write the formula to convert all names to UPPERCASE letters and its result.

6. Calculate the percentage obtained by each student.